

- (I) Small business development centers, as defined in Section 15382, where they exist
 - (II) Community-based organizations that provide intensive services as described in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 14230, shall be encouraged to be one-stop partners
- (j) In the case of Members directly appointed by the Board of Supervisors, the term of office shall be three years from the date a WIB Member is appointed. All other Members nominated by other entities approved by the Board of Supervisors shall serve a one- or two-year term from the date such Member is appointed for the first time, as approved by the Board of Supervisors. Such other Members nominated by other entities may be re-appointed to either a one-year term or a two-year term. The WIB shall recommend to the Board of Supervisors, the length of term proposed for each such renewal appointment. Appointments to fill vacancies shall be made in such a way as to maintain these term periods.
- (k) The WIB may comprise up to three non-voting WIB Members representing and nominated by WorkSource Center Directors: one Incoming Representative serving a three year term, one Current Representative serving a two year term, and one Outgoing Representative serving a one year term. Individuals so designated would rotate positions from Incoming to Current to Outgoing each year. During the first year of this requirement, Candidates for the three non-voting designations shall be forwarded to the Bylaws and Nominations Committee by WorkSource Center Directors and a recommendation from the Committee will be forwarded to the WIB for appointment as Incoming, Current, and Outgoing Representatives.
