

Kirk Kain, MPA
SASSFA Executive Director
Biography

Kirk Kain earned his Bachelors of Science in Community Service Counseling/Sociology from Wayne State College in 1984, and his Masters in Public Administration from Long Beach State University in 2007.

Mr. Kain has acted in a variety of positions working with a diverse set of populations, including; seniors, youth, persons with a disability, persons with a drug and alcohol dependency, and low income men, women and children.

Mr. Kain has been with the Southeast Area Social Services Funding Authority (SASSFA), a Los Angeles County WorkSource Center located in Santa Fe Springs, since October 2000, as a Case Manager and Program Director for two years, and Executive Director for 10 years. SASSFA provides workforce services and senior services to its local community. Mr. Kain is a current member of the Los Angeles County Workforce Investment Board, a member of several local Chamber of Commerces, and a member of the Advisory Council for the Whittier Salvation Army's Transitional Housing program.